

Jeff Davis County Statement on COVID-19
March 19, 2020

As an update to prior posts: We are continuing to monitor the ongoing COVID-19 situation. Effective today, we have filed a Declaration of County Disaster Due to Public Health Emergency. This document contains important information for all residents and travelers. Advisories for health and hygiene remain in effect. The Declaration is available for viewing on the County Website and is also posted at the Courthouse. <http://www.co.jeff-davis.tx.us/>

Please remember that our Reverse 911 system will continue to provide updates as soon as new information is available. If you are not a member, please visit the following link for more information on how to participate. <https://1012012399.bbcportal.com/> This link is also available on the County website.

County offices will continue to have restricted hours/availability during the coming week of March 23 – 27, 2020. Again, please contact the appropriate office for any immediate needs or concerns. The Judge's office remains available for direction if needed.

The Receiving Station will remain open until further notice. We ask all to maintain health, hygiene and safety standards to protect yourself and our staff at all times.

Thank you for your continued patience during this difficult time.
